

Privacy Policy

REVISED OCTOBER 24, 2024

Privacy Policy

1.0 Purpose of Privacy Policy

1000 Islands Community Development Corporation is a federally supported, community-based, nonprofit corporation with a volunteer Board of Directors and professional staff whose purpose is to develop and diversify local economies. This Privacy Policy has been developed to comply with Canada's Personal Information Protection and Electronic Documents Act ("PIPEDA"). PIPEDA sets out rules for the collection, use and disclosure of personal information in the course of commercial activity as defined in the Act.

1.1 The Ten Principles of PIPEDA Summarized

The ten Principles of PIPEDA that form the basis of this Privacy Policy are as follows:

1. Accountability: organizations are accountable for the personal information they collect, use, retain and disclose in the course of their commercial activities, including, but not limited to, the appointment of a Chief Privacy Officer;
2. Identifying Purposes: organizations are to explain the purposes for which the information is being used at the time of collection and it can only be used for those purposes;
3. Consent: organizations must obtain an individual's express or implied consent when they collect, use, or disclose the individual's personal information;
4. Limiting Collection: the collection of personal information must be limited to only the amount and type that is reasonably necessary for the identified purposes;
5. Limiting Use, Disclosure and Retention: personal information must be used for only the identified purposes, and must not be disclosed to third parties unless the individual consents to the alternative use or disclosure;
6. Accuracy: organizations are required to keep personal information in active files accurate and up-to-date;
7. Safeguards: organizations are to use physical, organizational, and technological safeguards to protect personal information from unauthorized access or disclosure;
8. Openness: organizations must inform their clients and train their employees about their privacy policies and procedures;
9. Individual Access: an individual has a right to access personal information held by an organization and to challenge its accuracy if need be; and

10. Provide Recourse: organizations are to inform clients and employees of how to bring a request for access, or complaint, to the Chief Privacy Officer, and respond promptly to a request or complaint by the individual.

This Privacy Policy applies to 1000 Islands Community Development Corporation's Board of Directors, employees and contracted employees. 1000 Islands Community Development Corporation ensures that all third-party service providers sign confidentiality agreements prior to any transfer of an individual's personal information in the course of providing the business loans, business development advice, nonrepayable financing and other related information and/or services.

1.2 Definitions

"Personal information" means any information about an identifiable individual. It includes, without limitation, information relating to identity, nationality, age, gender, address, telephone number, e-mail address, Social Insurance Number, date of birth, marital status, education, employment health history, assets, liabilities, payment records, credit records, loan records, income and information relating to financial transactions as well as certain personal opinions or views of an individual.

"Business information" means business name, business address, business telephone number, name(s) of owner(s), officer(s) and director(s), job titles, business registration numbers (HST, source deductions), financial status. Although business information is not subject to PIPEDA, confidentiality of business information will be treated with the same security measures by 1000 Islands Community Development Corporation staff and Board members, as is required for individual personal information under PIPEDA.

"Client" means the business (including sole proprietorships and individuals carrying on business in a partnership) or nonprofit organization that is applying for or has been granted a loan or nonrepayable financing; and/or is seeking business development advice;

"Individual" means the client's owner(s) or shareholders, co-signors, and/or any guarantor associated with a client.

"Application" means the application form or related forms completed by the individual(s) to request financing for the client from 1000 Islands Community Development Corporation.

"Data base" means the list of names, addresses and telephone numbers of clients and individuals held by 1000 Islands Community Development Corporation in the forms of, but not limited to, computer files, paper files, files on computer hard-drives, and files stored in an internet-based environment.

"File" means the information collected in the course of processing an application, as well as information collected/updated to maintain/service the account.

"Express Consent" means the individual gives consent explicitly and orally, signs the application or other forms containing personal information, and/or takes specific action online such as clicking "I agree" when using applications or other forms where personal information is provided, authorizing 1000 Islands

Community Development Corporation to collect, use, and disclose the individual's personal information for the purposes set out in the applications and/or forms; where an individual is seeking business development advice, Express Consent means the personal information is provided to 1000 Islands Community Development Corporation with the individual's authority i.e. by way of face to face meetings, telephone calls, faxes, letters, email and other communications.

"Implied Consent" means 1000 Islands Community Development Corporation may assume that the individual consents to the information being used, retained and disclosed for the original purposes, unless notified by the individual.

"Third Party" means a person or company that provides services to 1000 Islands Community Development Corporation in support of the programs, benefits, and other services offered by 1000 Islands Community Development Corporation, such as other lenders, credit bureaus, persons with whom the individual or client does business, but does not include any Government office or department to whom 1000 Islands Community Development Corporation reports in the delivery of such programs, benefits or services nor does it include any external websites linked to 1000 Islands Community Development Corporation website.

2.0 Purposes of Collecting Personal Information

Personal information is collected in order to provide business development advice, assess the eligibility of the individual completing an application for financial assistance, as well as to report to the Federal Economic Development Agency for Southern Ontario or its representatives. The individual is the main source of information, but 1000 Islands Community Development Corporation will also ask to obtain information directly from a third source where the individual does not have the required information.

Only that information which is required to make a determination of an individual's eligibility will be collected. Although the individual's Social Insurance Number may be requested in an application for confirming identification of the individual to the credit reporting agency, provision of this personal information is optional. The individual may provide alternative forms of identification.

3.0 Consent

An individual's express consent will be obtained before or at the time of collecting personal information. The purposes for the collection, use or disclosure of the personal information will be provided to the individual at the time of seeking the individual's consent. Once consent is obtained from the individual to use their information for those purposes, 1000 Islands Community Development Corporation has the individual's implied consent to collect or receive any supplementary information that is necessary to fulfil the same purposes. Express consent will also be obtained if, or when, a new use is identified.

By providing express consent in the application process, implied consent is granted by the individual to obtain and/or to verify information from third parties such as banks, credit bureaus, other lenders, and insurance companies in the process of assessing the eligibility of an individual or client. Implied consent is also granted by the individual to permit 1000 Islands Community Development Corporation to report or otherwise disclose information to the Federal Economic Development Agency for Southern Ontario (that is the government department that oversees 1000 Islands Community Development Corporation's activities) or its representatives.

An individual can choose not to provide some or all of the personal information at any time, but if 1000 Islands Community Development Corporation is unable to collect sufficient information to validate the request for financing, the individual's Application for such financing may be turned down.

A client or an individual can withdraw consent to 1000 Islands Community Development Corporation's use of personal information at any time prior to an application being approved, by making such request in writing. Once a business loan or grant has been approved, an individual cannot withdraw consent authorizing 1000 Islands Community Development Corporation to use and disclose the personal information for the purposes set out in this Privacy Policy.

This Privacy Policy does not cover statistical data from which the identity of individuals cannot be determined. 1000 Islands Community Development Corporation retains the right to use and disclose statistical data as it determines appropriate.

4.0 Limiting Collection

Personal information collected will be limited to the purposes set out in this Privacy Policy, 1000 Islands Community Development Corporation applications, and/or other forms and processes.

5.0 Limiting Use, Disclosure and Retention

5.1 Use of Personal Information

Personal information will be used for only those purposes to which the individual has consented with the following exceptions, as permitted under PIPEDA:

1000 Islands Community Development Corporation will use personal information without the individual's consent:

- If 1000 Islands Community Development Corporation has reasonable grounds to believe the information could be useful when investigating a contravention of a federal, provincial or foreign law and the information is used for that investigation;
- For an emergency that threatens an individual's life, health or security;
- For statistical or scholarly study or research;
- If the information is publicly available;
- If the use is clearly in the individual's interest, and consent is not available in a timely way;

- When it is contained in a witness statement, and the use is necessary to assess, process, or settle an insurance claim;
- Where it is produced by individuals in the course of their employment, business or profession;
- If knowledge and consent would compromise the availability or accuracy of the information and collection is required to investigate a breach of an agreement or contravention of a federal or provincial law.

5.2 Disclosure and Transfer of Personal Information

Personal information will be disclosed to the Federal Economic Development Agency for Southern Ontario or its representatives for reporting and evaluation purposes and to those 1000 Islands Community Development Corporation employees and Board of Directors that need to know the information for the purposes of their work of providing business development advice and assessing the eligibility of the individual completing an application for financial assistance.

Personal information will be disclosed to third parties with the individual's knowledge and consent.

PIPEDA permits 1000 Islands Community Development Corporation to disclose personal information to third parties, without an individual's knowledge and consent:

- To a lawyer representing 1000 Islands Community Development Corporation;
- To collect a debt owed to 1000 Islands Community Development Corporation by the individual or client;
- To comply with a subpoena, a warrant or an order made by a court or other body with appropriate jurisdiction;
- To a law enforcement agency in the process of a civil or criminal investigation;
- To a government agency, department or institution that has requested the information, identified its lawful authority to obtain the information, and indicates that disclosure is for the purpose of enforcing, carrying out an investigation, or gathering intelligence relating to any federal, provincial or foreign law; or suspects that the information relates to national security, the defence of Canada or the conduct of international affairs; or is for the purpose of administering any federal or provincial law;
- To a government institution or an individual's next of kin or authorized representative when there are reasonable grounds to believe that the individual has been, is or may be the victim of financial abuse;
- To another organization in instances where it is reasonable for the purposes of:

- investigating a breach of an agreement or contravention of a federal or provincial law that has been, is being or is about to be committed; or
- detecting or suppressing or preventing fraud that is likely to be committed;
- In connection with a business transaction (i.e. the sale or merger of 1000 Islands Community Development Corporation);
- When it is contained in a witness statement, and the disclosure is necessary to assess, process, or settle an insurance claim;
- Where it is produced by individuals in the course of their employment, business or profession;
- In an emergency threatening an individual's life, health, or security;
- To a government institution, individual's next of kin, or authorized representative if necessary to identify an individual who is injured, ill or deceased;
- For statistical, scholarly study or research;
- To an archival institution;
- 20 years after the individual's death or 100 years after the record was created;
- If it is publicly available; or
- As required by law.

PIPEDA permits 1000 Islands Community Development Corporation to transfer personal information to a third party, without the individual's knowledge or consent, if the transfer is simply for processing purposes and the third party only uses the information for the purposes for which it was transferred. 1000 Islands Community Development Corporation will ensure, by contractual or other means, that the third party protects the information and uses it only for the purposes for which it was transferred.

5.3 Retention of Personal Information

Personal information will be retained in client files for such periods of time as may be prescribed by applicable laws, regulations and any agreements that 1000 Islands Community Development Corporation enters into with a government agency, department or institution.

Personal information will be retained in client files for the length of 1000 Islands Community Development Corporation's federal contribution agreement + seven (7) years from the expiry of the agreement or its early termination in accordance with the agreement.

6.0 Accuracy

1000 Islands Community Development Corporation endeavours to ensure that any personal information provided by the individual in his or her active file(s) is accurate, current and complete as is necessary to fulfill the purposes for which the information has been collected, used, retained and disclosed. Individuals are requested to notify 1000 Islands Community Development Corporation of any change in personal or business information. Information contained in inactive files is not updated.

7.0 Safeguards

1000 Islands Community Development Corporation will use physical, organizational, and technological measures to safeguard personal information.

Organizational Safeguards: Access to personal information will be limited to the Federal Economic Development Agency for Southern Ontario or its representatives for reporting and evaluation purposes and to only those 1000 Islands Community Development Corporation employees, and the 1000 Islands Community Development Corporation Board of Directors that need to know the information for the purposes of: their work or making an assessment as to the individual's eligibility to the loan program; providing business development advice; and assessing the eligibility of the individual completing an application for financial assistance.

1000 Islands Community Development Corporation Board of Directors and employees are not permitted to copy or retain any personal information on individuals or clients and must return for destruction all such information given to them to review once the purpose for being provided with this information has been fulfilled.

Employees and 1000 Islands Community Development Corporation Board of Directors are required to sign a confidentiality agreement binding them to maintaining the confidentiality of all personal information to which they have access.
